TENNESSEE ADOPTS THE ANTHONY AMENDMENT

COUNTER OFFENSIVE OF THE POLISH FORCES CONTINUES

RECONSIDER MOTION
HALTS NOTIFICATION
OF COLBY, TENSION
NOT RELAXED TODAY

Parliamentary Action Prevents Full Victory From Going to Suffragists.

VOTE IS TAKEN AFTER MUCH DEBATE IN HOUSE

Charges Are Freely Made That
"Interests" Opposed the Ratification.

(International News Service)
NASHVILLE, Aug. 18.—The Tennessee house of representatives ratified the 19th amendment by a vote of 49 to 47. This is one less than the constitutional majority. Before the result could be announced Speaker Walker changed his vote from no to aye, making it 50 to 46, a bare constitutional majority, but he had already recorded on the journal a motion to reconsider. This motion can be brought up at any time within the next two legislative days. The house then adjourned until 10:30 Thursday. The suffrage leaders are confident that on the reconsideration motion they will have two votes they did not have today and are certain today's victory will not be snatched from their grasp.

The ratification followed two votes on tabling the resolution, in both of which the forces of each side stood tied 48 to 48, not a man shifting his vote. Then immediately followed the ratification vote. Representative Boyd, who had voted to table, voted aye. This gave a shift of one to the line up. The rest of the ranks held firm but Boyd's vote made the total 49 to 47. The ratification resolution cannot be reported to Secretary of State Colby until all chances of reconsideration are over, so two days more of tremendous tension remain before the ratification is absolutely complete. It came at the close of ten days of the bitterest conflict ever held in the Tennessee legislature, during which suffrage opponents use every might and legislative trick to block ratification; during which it was freely charged by suffrage members that "interests" had banded together to defeat the amendment.

In fact, Representative L. D. Miller today charged that the same interests, which had controlled the legislature, were on hand to block suffrage. He asserted that the same men who lobbied for whatever they wanted put through were in Nashville to defeat ratification. When the roll was called women began to sob. The tension was so great the members were affected to still silence. Most of them cast their aye or no in a conversational tone. When a ringing "no" came from a suffrage man, who, it had been feared had wobbled on the motion to table, the suffragists cheered to the echo.

APPEAL TO COLBY
(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, Aug. 18.—An appeal to Secretary Colby to declare the suffrage amendment ratified was made this afternoon by Miss Alice Paul. The women ask the proclamation be issued as soon as official notification of ratification is received in order that women may vote in August primaries now being held in many states.

Americans Suffer
Injuries to Team

(International News Service)
ANTWERP, Aug. 18.—Hit in vital spots by new injuries, the American Olympic team continued today to roll up their overwhelming total of points in the seventh Olympiad, with Finland steadily decreasing the gap between the two nations. At the end of the day the points scored were:

VULTURES LEAD PARTY TO BODY OF SLAIN FARMER IN BIG CAVE

Seven Negroes Held in Marshall County in Connection With Killing.

Seven negroes are held in the Marshall county jail at Guntersville, on suspicion of implication in the murder of John F. McClendon, a prominent farmer, according to information received here today. The negroes were arrested at Warrenton, it is said, and are being held until officials can complete their investigation of the case. McClendon is reported to have mysteriously disappeared on the night of August 6, after assisting in preparing for a barbecue to be held at Smith Lake, near Warrenton the following day. On failure of the farmer to return to his home, a searching party began scouring the vicinity and McClendon's body was discovered in a cave on Brindle mountain, six miles west of Guntersville and only a short distance from the dead man's home. The party was directed to the cave by a swarm of vultures hovering near the spot. The body was wrapped in a quilt only the skeleton remaining. The clothing, shoes and gold teeth made possible identification by relatives of the slain man. The body showed several wounds, indicating McClendon had been killed with a shot gun. The deceased was a very successful farmer and was reported to be wealthy. The robbery motive has been advanced by officers. It is known that McClendon frequently carried large sum of money in his pocket.

FINAL DECISION ON GOOD ROADS BOND ISSUE IS PROBABLE EARLY NEXT MONTH

Tax Assessments Are Expected to be Ready by That Time.

REVENUE BOARD WILL CONVENE SEPTEMBER 6

Petition For Election Was Filed by the Albany Commerce Chamber.

Final decision on the $450,000 good roads bond issue election probably will be made by the Morgan County Board of Revenue at its meeting the first Monday in September. The board has delayed action on the petition for the good roads election on account of the absence of final figures on the county's tax assessments, on which the amounts of bonds which may be issued are calculated. It was announced today that final figures will be given to the board by the tax officials within the next two weeks.

The good roads petition was filed with the board several weeks ago after signatures had been obtained in all parts of the county through the instrumentality of the Albany chamber of commerce, sponsor for the highway movement.

The petition sets forth the roads which are to be constructed with funds from the bond issue. It makes a complete chain of good roads for Morgan County and when all of the roads designated are completed, there will not be a farm in the county more than one mile from an improved highway.

A part of the proceeds from the bond issue will be used as a repair fund to keep the roads in good condition. All of the roads designated are in addition to the several inter-county highways to be constructed by the state highway department with funds from the federal government and the state's $25,000,000 bond issue.

ALBANY NOMINATES ALDERMEN MONDAY, CANDIDATES MAYOR TUESDAY AT MEETS

Mass Meetings to Open Campaign Called by the City Council.

LARGE FUND IS VOTED TO IMPROVE SCHOOLS

Most of the Work Will be Done on the Gordon School.

Albany citizens will nominate their candidates for aldermen at four ward meetings to be held next Monday night and will nominate candidates for mayor at a general mass meeting to be held next Tuesday night, according to a decision of the council in regular session last night. Among the first questions to be brought up before the council was that of the coming September election. It was decided that it would be best that the aldermen from each ward to call a mass meeting and receive nominations for aldermen from his ward. The meetings are to be held at the school buildings of each section except the Fourth ward where citizens will meet at the city hall. After all wards have met and decided on their candidate, they will then meet at the Albany City Hall and nominate for mayor, chief of Police and president of the council. If the number of the citizens is too large for the city hall, the meeting will be held at the Masonic Theatre.

WOMEN, FIGHTING SIDE BY SIDE WITH MEN, DISPLAY HEROISM IN GREAT BATTLE WITH REDS

Fall in River is Expected Soon

The river gauge stood at 17 feet 3 inches on the bridge this morning and the waters are the rampage. It is predicted that the Tennessee will stand at something over 19 feet before the rise is over. All the bottom lands are now flooded and at the foot of Riverview Avenue the boats used by the Bond Brothers Lumber Co. have been drawn up the street to prevent a probable trip down the river.

The rise is halted at Chattanooga and the fall will soon reach here. A stage of 30 feet was reached at the Lookout City before the fall came. It was first thought that the river would be higher here than ever before but most of the rise was a sudden affair and the river is now on the way to its banks again.

MAYS WILL REMAIN ON THE DIAMOND

YANKEE HURLER WILL NOT QUIT BECAUSE OF CHAPMAN'S DEATH

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, Aug. 18.—Grief stricken Carl Mays declared here today he will face accusation that he is a "bean ball" pitcher on the diamond. The fact that Ray Chapman died from injuries he received when struck by a ball pitched by Mays will not keep the Yankee star out of the game.

Mays, a college graduate, intelligent, made a calm analysis of his own case. "Any man who believes a pitcher would deliberately throw a ball at another's head in a ball game is foolish. My grief is great but the accident is something that could not be helped. I intend to remain in baseball and show the fans that things which have been said of me are either malicious or ill-advised."

SUPT. BROOKS GETS PROMOTION, REPORT

LOUISVILLE AND NASHVILLE OFFICIAL MAY BE TRANSFERRED TO KENTUCKY

T. E. Brooks, for the past 17 years superintendent of this division of the Louisville and Nashville railroad, has been promoted to assistant general manager, with headquarters at Louisville, according to a report in railroad circles. Local railroad men today professed to know nothing of the promotion. Mr. Brooks will assume his new duties on or about September 1, it was stated. He is well known in the Twin Cities, where he has often visited on inspection tours.

DUBLIN, Aug. 18.—Twenty thousand well armed and restless Sinn Fein volunteers in County Cork have been left without a commander with the arrest of the Lord Mayor.

RUSSIANS READY TO LISTEN

(International News Service)
LONDON, Aug. 18.—The Polish mission at Minsk made a tenacious fight against disarmament, demanding mutual disarmament of both the Polish and Russian armies, it was learned from a semi-official source today.

The Poles furthermore made vigorous protest against the Russian demand for free transport facilities across Poland.

M. Danishefsky, according to a Minsk dispatch to the Manchester Guardian, informed the Poles that the Russians did not intend to dictate peace but were ready to listen to any Polish proposals. He added that the Russians were determined the conference should lead to peace.

COMMITTEE MEETS TO RECEIVE CONCESSIONS FROM THE COAL OPERATORS

(International News Service)
CLEVELAND, O., Aug. 18.—Decisive action one way or the other on the readjustment of the wage scale for coal miners is expected today when the joint coals committee of the central district, including Ohio, Indiana, Illinois and Western Pennsylvania, convenes here.

Operators have offered greater increases than those contained in their proposal of Monday when they intimated their willingness to grant men employed on the day basis as great percentage of increase as given tonnage workers in the award of the award of the coal commission.

"The offer made is not satisfactory," said President John L. Lewis of the United Mine Workers. In advance of the conference, however, he refused to divulge the terms offered and representatives of the operators

THE KENTUCKY
MAN'S GUN

The excuse offered those who carry revolvers is that they may need a weapon with which to defend themselves. The truth is that occasions upon which a deadly weapon is of use are so rare that the vast majority of men never encounter them, and furthermore, when such occasions come, a pistol in the pocket is almost invariably useless. The highwayman always "has the drop" on his man.
Let any one who doubts this try to recall a single instance in which any man was able to use a weapon carried in his pocket against a criminal.

But the weapon in the pocket is not without its effect upon human affairs even though it is without use and knowledge of its evil influence is gradually banishing the revolver from hip pockets in those parts of the country where "gun toting" still persists.

In Kentucky "the right to bear arms" has long been regarded as a sufficient justification of the habit of carrying a revolver, and sentiment has leaned so strongly that way that even the governors of the state have been in the habit of issuing pardons of-fhand to any man convicted of carrying a revolver under a statute which made that practice criminal and imposed a jail sentence for violators of it. The Louisville Courier-Journal tells of one instance in which a man convicted under that law merely telephoned the governor and got a pardon.
But Governor Morrow has announced that the law will no longer be regarded as a joke. "Pistol carrying," the governor says, "promotes homicide. It begets a desire to use the weapon carried. It makes men murderers in their minds and hearts before they carry the deed into execution."

Therefore, the governor announces that there will be no more pardons and he calls upon the prosecuting officers and courts for a rigid enforcement of the law. The policy will not result in the complete enforcement of the law in Kentucky any more than it has in other states, but it may be expected to increase the pressure against one of the causes which, combined with others, makes this a country with a disgracefully large record of homicides.—Detroit Free Press.

Voice of People

Editor The Daily:

Your editorial "Oh Again off Again" is alright from the standpoint of justice but if we who live in Albany, wish to secure a remedy where in the land of MIKE would we go to get it? Have you not long ago learned that the corporations do about as they please?

Out in ward No. 1, the good housewives tell me that the service of the JUDGE for house work is so poor that they never know just when to depend on getting it.

The local force of the Alabama Power Company are our citizens and we admire them but we are absolutely compelled to inform them that the ENERGY they are supposed to give us in JUICE for our town is below par. If we use 2 kw's we are charged $1.00 but if we use 11 kw's we must pay $1.10. We are compelled to go to the office and pay our bills, and to put up with conditions just as they say. If one thing is fair for the BEAR surely the SHEEP ought to come in somewhere.

The writer went to the expense of having pipe put into his property for gas connections but quit at that because, my neighbor complained so much on Sunday about having to put up with a poor Sunday dinner because there was no gas to cook with that I kept my wickless stove and concluded to go no further with gas accommodations for awhile.

Not one, but all in Albany have been compelled to suffer inconvenience because of the poor accommodations of the Alabama Power company, and we really thought that as soon as the promised service of the larger power coming from outside works of the company were connected with us that our troubles would be over, but instead we are faced with power at short intervals during the day and part of the evenings, yet, we are told to do just so and of course, we do it because we have no way of helping ourselves.

We have a poor chance of getting anything when the other fellow has the hog by the tail with a down-hill pull on the situation.

Yours truly,

J. A. THORNHILL.

MEZPAH

Go thou thy way and I go mine.
Apart, yet not apart,
Only a thin veil hangs between,
The pathways where we are.

"And God" keep watch 'tween thee and me,
He looks thy way, He looketh mine,
And keeps us near.

I sigh sometimes to see thy face,
But since this may not be—
I'll leave thee to the care of Him Who cares for thee and me.

Jason a Legendary Character.

Jason was the leader of the Argo-nautic expedition in Greek legend. The equivalent of his name in Greek is the healer or atone. Jason was tutored and brought up under Chiron, a Greek myth renowned for his wisdom and skill in medicine, hunting, music and prophecy. Jason's greatest exploit was his expedition with the Argonauts in quest of the Golden Fleece.
Jason secured this by the aid of Medea, a sorceress who fell in love with him. She protected him from the bulls breathing fire and hooved with brass which he was obliged, in order to obtain the fleece, to yoke to the plow.
She also protected him from the armed men who sprang up from the dragon's teeth which he was required to sow in the fields. Medea fled with Jason and the fleece and married him.
Ten years later Jason abandoned her after she had murdered Creusa, whom Jason had determined to marry.

Are You Sinking Into the Rut of Ill-Health Because Your Blood Is Starving For Iron?

Physician Explains Why Modern Methods of Living Sap the Iron From The Blood and Why So Many Men and Women Are Benefited By The Strength-Giving, Up-Building
Effect of Organic Iron Like

NUXATED IRON

Many a man or woman is wearily trudging along the road of life steadily becoming more weakened and run-down simply because their blood is getting thin, pale and watery—starving for a want of strength-giving iron. At any moment they run the risk of sinking into the Rut of Ill-Health, and by not building up their physical condition in time they often sentence themselves to a lifetime of misery and regrets.

"Without iron there can be no strong, sturdy men or healthy, beautiful women," says Dr. Ferdinand King, New York Physician and Medical Author, in commenting upon how the strain of modern methods of living sap the iron from the blood and break down the health and strength.
"Seldom do you find a weakling in a place of real power.
The men who reach the top in business are those who do not neglect their physical or mental development. The women who come to the front in commercial or social life, and the ones who are most successful in the home
are those who realize the value of health.

"You can look around and see any number of such people and you can tell that every one of them is possessed of rich, red blood—the kind with plenty of iron in it to build strength and energy. Yet, there are thousands of people who are weak, nervous and run-down for the lack of iron and do not know what to take. In cases of this kind, I always prescribe organic iron like Nuxated Iron for I find that by enriching the blood and creating new red blood cells, it helps strengthen the nerves, rebuild the weakened tissues and give renewed energy to the whole body. Through my own tests of Nuxated Iron I am convinced it is one of the best strength and blood builders any physician can prescribe.

Among other physicians to comment on the need of rich, red blood to increase the power and endurance of weakened, run-down men and women, is Dr. James Francis Sullivan, formerly physician of Bellevue Hospital (Outdoor Dept.), N. Y., and the Westchester County Hospital, who says: "There is little doubt, in my opinion, that many men and women would be stronger, more energetic and vigorous in body and mind, and therefore more successful in life, if they would only enrich their blood with organic iron and thus fortify and invigorate their whole system."

"There can be no success or happiness without the rich, red blood-full of iron—that always gives us strength. Wherever you go you can tell the fellows with iron in their blood; they are the strong, vigorous, dominant, successful ones, brimming over with Life and Energy. In my opinion, the best way to build up the strength and endurance is to take organic iron—Nuxated Iron. I have prescribed it with remarkable results and in many instances it has increased the strength and endurance in two weeks' time. I cannot recommend it too highly for men or women who are weak, nervous and run-down."

If you are not strong or well you owe it to yourself to make the following test: See how long you can work without becoming tired.
Next take two five-grain tablets of ordinary Nuxated Iron three times per day after meals for two weeks. Then test your strength again and see how much you have gained.

Manufacturers' Note: Nuxated Iron, which is recommended above, is not a secret remedy but one which is well known to druggists everywhere. Unlike the older ferruginous iron products it is easily assimilated and does not irritate the stomach, make them black, nor upset the stomach. Each tablet of genuine Nuxated Iron is stamped as follows: "Nuxated Iron" and the words Nuxated Iron are stamped into each bottle, so that the public may not be led into accepting inferior substitutes. The manufacturers guarantee successful and entirely satisfactory results to every purchaser or they will refund your money. It is dispensed in tablet form only by all druggists.

The Facts of the Telephone Situation in Alabama

By J. EPPS BROWN, President.

SOUTHERN BELL TELEPHONE & TELEGRAPH CO.

The Company, The Public, The Employees

Adequate and efficient telephone service is essential to the continued prosperity of all commercial enterprises, and a telephone in the home for social intercourse is as necessary as a telephone in the place of business.

No telephone company can furnish this service without the full support of the public it serves. This is true because the interests of the public, the telephone company and its employees are identical; each must co-operate and neither can permanently profit at the expense of the other.

The Company furnishes the Plant and receives Profits.

The Employees furnish the Effort and receive Wages.

The Public furnishes the Revenue and receives Service.

The telephone situation is as much the concern of the public as it is of the company and its employees. The sound support of the public should be based upon a knowledge of the facts.

The telephone industry in Alabama faces a crisis unparalleled during its entire history, the cumulative effect of conditions during the past four years; conditions which this Company was powerless to influence or control.

It is the purpose of this Company to fully inform the public of the facts of this situation.

This is the first of a series of advertisements to place before the public all the facts of the telephone industry in the State of Alabama.

It is the duty of all who have need for telephone service now, and in the future, to carefully read and consider these facts, and, if convincing, to give a quick, direct and cordial support to the Company.

If any statements are questioned, they can be verified.

Our whole claim for your support is based upon established facts.

The next advertisement will give a detailed statement of the Company's investment, expenses and revenues for the years 1916, 1917, 1918 and 1919.

HITS AND MISSES

By BARRETT SHELTON

WITH THE OLYMPIC

The Americans were not up to form yesterday and as a result failed to gain in the point line. The lingo used by the French officials is probably the cause for the partial set back suffered by the American field forces. Misunderstanding the meaning of the judges the American entries started at a hard gait when the officials meant for them to warm up. The shot put artists threw the shot as far as possible and when the trials opened, were too tired to compete. Sol Butler, the negro broad jumper from Duquesne University, also didn't get the meaning of the foreign officials and strained a tendon in his leg while doing his best.

The one feature of the day from an American standpoint was the high jump by R. C. Landon of the New York Athletic Club. Landon cleared the bar at 1.93 1-2 metres or a margin over six feet. This mark broke the world record and this is the second brought down by the Americans since entering the games at Antwerp three days ago.

DECATUR GETS BACK

Two weeks ago the Decatur boys came home from Trinity and from the amount of noise heard it was very evident that some several funerals had taken place while they were to the west. However, none of them had "gone west" and all were rather lively yesterday when the westerners from Trinity appeared on the local territory. The Trinity bunch landed on the local hurler with a thud in the opening frame and put three abroad the hassocks before the Decatur crew got their bearings. Upon the scene then stepped a mighty man. Trinity thought he was one of Ruth's own. But unfortunately the Decatur hurler knew him not. This "mighty bimbine" misunderstood three deep ones and many of the rest of the Trinity gang followed suit for the next four innings. The final count went to 7-6 in favor of the home people and their revenge was complete.

Shall we close here? Well, I should say not. Without the name of "Marvelous" Rankin this report would be doomed to the "hell box". If you don't gather the meaning of that term just drop in and see the "cub" reporter for most of his efforts get the aforesaid situation. Now we will get back to "Marvelous". He actually forgot that he was ever near the hurling hill and took up a line out toward right. He played the game in great fashion too. But that ain't all. This same "Marvelous" put the term, consternation, on the Trinity forces when he hit for three fourths of the way and with two Decaturites aboard. Morris, former Fitzgerald-Clark star, pulled a nice stop when he stabbed one that had "over the wall" stamped on the trade mark.

HAL CHASE AND LEE MCGEE THE BAD APPLE EXAMPLE

Hal Chase and Lee McGee are now both in the same boat and both have reached the height of obtaining the pink slip. Chase got the close of his career when he was put out of the Mission League on the Pacific Coast on a charge of gambling. Hal was getting $100 per game out there but he thought he and Ponzi were of the same stuff and now they both are through. Lee McGee is the third of the trio and he has also been shoved into oblivion on account of the itching palm. Lee protested and stated that he had as much right as others. That was old stuff to the League mob and he too is out for the rest of his life. It is best for all that the gamblers get their walking papers for it ruins any kind of sport quicker than any thing else. Horse racing and mitt artists have been barred in several places simply because the gamblers were the gainers everytime.

IN MEMORIAM

The Yanks and Cleveland postponed the second game of the series yesterday to pay a silent tribute to Ray Chapman, the short stop of the Cleveland Americans, who was hit by a pitched ball and died as a result.

Chapman stepped into one of Carl May's fast ones and the blow caused concussion of the brain. He was the first big leaguer to get this fate.

KIWANIS TO HAVE A GAME OF OWN

PICKED TEAMS FROM THE CLUB MEMBERSHIP WILL CLASH THURSDAY

Members of the Morgan County Kiwanis club will stage a game of their own at the baseball park Thursday afternoon when two teams, picked from the club membership, will clash. The Mohawks will be led by Chief Marvin Rankin, while the Tomahawks will be led by Chief J. Y. Hamill. Both are hurlers and both are in good condition for Thursday's fray.

The game will be called at 4 o'clock. Robert Daniel will officiate as umpire. He announced today his platform would be strictly law enforcement and to aid him he has called on the police reserves of both Albany and Decatur and has requested the American Legion to send a squad of military police for sideline duty.

All of the contestants will be members of the Kiwanis club and the game will provide an opportunity to decide the mooted question of responsibility for the recent defeats of the club team.

Fire Threatens the Singer Plant

(International News Service) SOUTH BEND, Ind., Aug. 18. — Destruction by fire of the plant of the Singer manufacturing company, makers of sewing machines, was averted early today after a difficult fight by all available firemen and apparatus in the city.

The fire started shortly after midnight and for a time it appeared certain would spread to all parts of the plant. By strenuous work the firemen managed to confine the flames to the dry kiln. Early today it was estimated the damage would not exceed $200,000.

AT LAST, RELIEF FROM RHEUMATISM

Now Is An Excellent Time to Get Rid of Its Tortures.

Rheumatism is more than a mere local disorder confined to the locality of the painful parts. It cannot be rubbed away, because it is a deep-seated disease that has its source in the blood supply. The millions of little disease germs that cause the disease must be reached and eliminated from the blood before real relief can be had. S. S. S. has been successfully used for Rheumatism for more than fifty years. It is the most thorough and reliable blood remedy because it searches out and eliminates the disease germs which infest the blood. For free expert medical advice regarding your own case, write fully to Chief Medical Adviser, Swift Laboratory, Atlanta.

Hookworm Disease

By Dr. B. F. Austin, County Health Officer.

Hookworm disease is found in all tropical and southern temperate zones. In the United States, it is prevalent in the southern states. It is caused by small worms that vary from one-fourth to three-fourths inch in length and are about the size of No. 8 thread. These worms gain access to the body through the skin, find their way to the intestines, where they attack themselves, draw blood from the unfortunate patient, inject a small amount of poison and lay eggs. These eggs hatch in the soil, hence it is only from polluted soil that one becomes infected with hookworm. It is interesting to know that these worms enter the skin where they cause an itching sensation, known as "ground itch," gain access to the blood stream, and pass into the heart, from which they are pumped into the vessels that carry blood to the lungs. The walls lining the blood vessels and air vessels in the lungs are so thin that the worm penetrates from the blood into the air passage without great difficulty. Then it takes the course of least resistance, and travels upward into the larger air passages, and from the larynx passes into the pharynx, and is swallowed, and it is not until it reaches the small intestine that it attaches itself. Here it takes hold on the soft mucus lining which is so richly supplied with blood, and each worm draws about a drop of blood a day, and injects small amounts of poison. (Their eggs do not hatch in the intestine of the patient.) The life of a hookworm varies from eight to fifteen years.

Some of the most common symptoms of hookworm disease, are lassitude, weakness, loss of physical and mental ability, loss of weight, and anemia. Children affected with the disease don't ever feel like playing or working, are stunted in growth, and do not learn in school as other children. They are very often fond of eating trash, sometimes dirt, and just have a general "Don't care" feeling. In more severe cases there are various stomach and intestinal troubles, as indigestion and diarrhea, headaches, and sometimes the patient becomes bloated, or has a bad sore on a leg which lasts for months.

This disease can be prevented by the following means:

- 1—The use of shoes twelve months in the year, especially in rainy weather, thus preventing damp soil from sticking to the feet.
- 2—The construction and use of sanitary privies, thus preventing soil pollution.
- 3—Treatment and cure of all known or suspected cases.

Hookworm disease is one of the easiest known to cure. The Health Department of Morgan County will give this treatment absolutely free of charge to anyone suffering with the disease. We will also make examination free, so if anyone suspects the disease, don't fail to see or write to the Morgan County Health Department at Decatur, Alabama, P. O. Box 92, and they will examine and treat the same.

VIVIAN RICH A STAR

IN SOCIETY DRAMA

DELITE THURSDAY

Motion picture astronomers will be interested in the advent of a new star on Thursday at the Delite Theatre, where William Fox will present Vivian Rich in "Would you Forgive?" Although it is the appearance of Miss Rich in a stellar role, she has been welcomed on the screen so often and so favorably in exacting characterizations that her success as a star is beyond doubt. "Would You Forgive?" is said to be excellently suited to catch the sympathetic personality and exquisite beauty of the star. The story is from the pen of Julius G. Furthman, and deals with a fundamental question of the modern family. According to statements by the producer, the picture makes a powerful plea for a more tolerant relation between husband and wife. At any rate, much of the drama in this story hinges upon the excessive suspicion of the husband.

Supporting Miss Rich is a group of talented players whose ability is well known. These include Tom Chatterton, Ben Deely, and Lillie Leslie, Scott Dunlap, creator of many screen successes, directed this production.

Trinity Defeated In Close Contest

Trinity was defeated yesterday afternoon at the race track diamond by Decatur, 7 to 6, in a nip and tuck contest. Callahan scored the winning run in the ninth, with one down when Morris clicked a safety to center after Callahan had hit one through short.

The locals got away to a flying start, counting four times in the second, Rankin clearing the bases with a three base smack to right.
Trinity forged ahead in the fifth when they mixed a combination of hits and errors for five scores. The visitors made another in the eighth, tying it up again. Morris, in center for the locals, threw two men out at the plate and made a pretty running catch in left center.

Score by innings:
Trinity 000 050 010—6
Decatur 040 002 001—7

ESSEX
MOTOR
CARS

ESSEX San Francisco 4 Days to New York 14 Hours 3347 Miles 43 Minutes

*Lowers Transcontinental Record by 12 Hours 48 Min. Another Essex Going From New York to San Francisco Broke the Record
For That Direction by 22 Hours 13 Min., Completing the Trip In 4 Days 19 Hours 17 Minutes*

So Essex Holds the Transcontinental Record Both Ways

Two Essex touring cars, carrying U. S. Mail, each one making the entire trip between San Francisco and New York, have set the time records for their respective directions across the American continent.

And thus comes to Essex another distinction for reliability and endurance.

• Except for one airplane record, these two Essex cars have crossed the continent in less time than was ever recorded by any travelling machine. The fastest time possible between San Francisco and New York by train is slightly less than the time taken by the light weight economical Essex. But in the case of the railroad train, many different locomotives are used, each pulling the train only a few hundred miles.

From Cheyenne to Omaha the route taken by the Essex was 43 miles longer than the 550 mile route of the famous Overland Limited yet the Essex time was but one hour longer than the express train time.

The World's Most Coveted Records

From the days of the Prairie Schooner, the Pony Express and the completion of the railroads men have sought to establish new transcontinental time records between the Atlantic and Pacific oceans.

It has called for the highest development of skill and courage. And it has, as in the case of the motor car, blazed the way to mechanical reliability.

• The purpose of this Essex test was to prove its reliability. In the period of 114 hours was crowded more strains, more calls for endurance and mechanical strength than the average owner demands in a life time.

Every requirement of motor car performance was met by these two cars. And the fact that they so consistently met their tasks proves Essex uniformity.

The speeds at which they traveled were not so unusual, for another Essex stock car had on a speedway track gone 3037 miles in 50 hours. But in the transcontinental runs, some 350 cities and towns had to be crossed.
Crowded traffic imposed its obstacles to consistent going. Mountain ranges in the East and West with grades such as the average driver never encounters, called for the utmost of hill climbing ability.

Few will ever motor all the way across America and therefore cannot know the extreme varieties of conditions encountered.
But let each reader apply to his consideration of what Essex has done, every experience he has ever met in his own driving. It will give some appreciation of Essex reliability.

Light Weight Now Establishes Reliability

How gradual have men come to a realization that a light weight car can also offer reliance and performance.

Essex has led the way for that was its purpose from the very first. Economy is of growing importance. Men want to save in fuel and in first costs. But they want no sacrifice in performance and they demand unquestioned reliability.

Essex offered itself to the public without claim. Now more than 40,000 owners know and praise its worth.

Owner cars that had been driven upwards of 25,000 miles were used in the recent nation wide Essex week to establish reliability, economy, speed and hill climbing records.

To Essex owners the winning of the transcontinental records is not a surprise. But those who do not know Essex performance and reliability must regard that these two trips across the continent are as important in marking mechanical advancement as any similar event in the history of the motor car.
